ABSTRACT

The document lists California preschool agencies outside of the public school system which offer special education and/or related services to children 3-4.9 years old. The information was gathered through mail surveys and telephone verifications. Each entry (presented in an extensive appendix) provides information on the following aspect: county, agency, contact, phone, address, hours of service, type of agency, handicapping condition served, certification, credential/licensing of staff, availability of integration, fees charged, services provided, data (including capacity, class size, and adult pupil ratio) on individuals with exceptional needs, information on nonhandicapped students, referral procedures, and provisions for co-contracting for services with public schools or other agencies. Entries are arranged alphabetically by county, and then alphabetically by agency within each county. (Blank directory information forms, listed in the table of contents as appendix B, are not included with this document.) (CL)

INTRODUCTION

Background

The rationale for providing comprehensive services to preschool handicapped children has been extensively documented in "The Efficacy and Cost Effectiveness of Early Education for Handicapped Infants and Preschool Children" published by the State Department of Education, 1982. In addition, the State Department of Education has published "Handicapped Infant and Preschool Children: Program Guidelines" which outlines elements of effective preschool programs which will maximize both the over-all cost effectiveness of these services and improve the quality of life for these and other children.

This study on the analysis of private agencies serving handicapped preschool children will enable both private and public agencies to fulfill many of the program recommendations established in the State's publication on preschool guidelines. Among these recommendations are:

- .familiarity of assessment personnel, teachers, administrators and parents with program options available; and

- .detailed information needed regarding early intervention models available, program costs, class size and adult/child ratios.

Many other publications have supported the need for comprehensive services in the area of handicapped preschool education. Among these, "Early Childhood Education for the Handicapped in the 1980's: Recommendations" (Exceptional Children, 1981) has stressed the need for exploring new models such as family centers, clinical models and other educational/treatment models which are found in the private sector. Central to the recommendations made is the need for increased awareness of needs and opportunities on the part of service providers, parents, advocacy groups and training institutions.

The California State Department of Education and the State Council on Developmental Disabilities have collected extensive data on the type and availability of services offered by public agencies for individuals with exceptional needs, ages birth through 4.9. The Department has also collected information on private agencies serving ages birth through 3.0. Other directories are also available through the California Regional Resource Center, the Community Resource Information Bank (CRIB) and other sources, however these multiple directories are cumbersome and incomplete, at best.

In order to coordinate the efforts of all agencies providing services to individuals with exceptional needs, and to ensure a free and appropriate education for all handicapped children, ages 3.0 through 21, it is necessary to have useable, enumerative and descriptive information regarding these agencies detailing the types of services they provide.

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to provide a directory of preschool agencies outside of the public school system which offer special education and/or related services in the 3.0 to 4.9 age group. In addition, an attempt was made to answer a variety of questions related to the services provided by these agencies.

This directory will assist local public and private agencies in meeting the needs of handicapped preschool children in their service regions; and aid parents in selecting an appropriate education for their preschool children.

Information Gathering Procedures

The information listed in this directory was collected between December 1, 1982 and May 15, 1983. The primary method of data collection was through mail surveys to agencies listed in various directories, including: the State Directory of Certified Nonpublic Schools; Infant Development Directory for both Northern and Southern California; Community Resource Information Bank for Los Angeles County; and the Directory of Services for the Handicapped in California published by the California Regional Resource Center at the University of Southern California. In addition, numerous telephone contacts were made to verify information on the completed survey forms. However, information listed in the directory reflects each agency's description of its own services and does not infer confirmation of the information.

Follow-up To This Directory

In Appendix B of the Directory, there are three (3) blank Directory Information forms. These forms have been provided for agencies wishing to be included in any future updates of this Directory, and for agencies currently in the Directory who wish to change any information now listed.

The following three (3) pages list the definitions for each piece of information on the Directory Information forms.

SUMMARY

Initially, over 800 surveys were mailed to agencies which were listed in directories as providing services to individuals with exceptional needs (IWENs). Of these 800 agencies, over 500 eventually responded to the survey. Approximately 100 agencies had disbanded or moved with no forwarding address and another 200 agencies did not respond to the survey.

Of the 500 agencies which responded to the survey, approximately 300 stated that they did not provide services for IWENs within the ages of 3.0 years to 4.9 years . A total of 183 agencies were discovered which currently offer services to IWENs in the 3.0 to 4.9 agegroup. These 183 agencies reported providing over 14,000 services to IWENs. This is a duplicated count of services; which means that if an agency provided 4 services to each of 10 IWENs the total number of pupils served would be 40.

Agencies throughout the State reported serving the greatest number of IWENs in the area of language and speech, with the total pupils served at 3,662. Counseling was the next most provided service at 2,604 pupils and Diagnosis was third with 2,397 pupils.

A total of 26 types of services were reported as being provided. These included:

1. Counseling
2. Diagnosis
3. Educ Therapy or Classes
4. Adapted PE
5. Language & Speech
6. Occupational or Physical Therapy
7. Art Therapy
8. Audiology
9. Behavior Therapy
10. Child Care
11. Dance Therapy
12. Family Therapy

19. Parent Education
20. Pediatrics
21. Psychotherapy
22. Residential
23. Respite Care
24. Sensory-motor Training
25. Swimming
26. Vision Therapy

Of the 183 agencies currently offering services, 76% charge fees; 43% are certified by the State Department of Education; and 29% have integration available with Non-IWENs. Over 70% of the agencies make referrals to the public schools and accept referrals from public schools.

Additional summary information is provided in the following two (2) tables:

1. General Summary of Directory Information by County; and

2. Summary of the Reported Number of Agencies Providing Services and Number of Children Receiving Services.

APPENDIX A

This section contains the individual Directory Information listings compiled for each of the 183 private agencies currently offering services to IWENs, ages 3.0 to 4.9. The Directory is arranged alphabetically by county, then alphabetically by agency within each county.

Definitions of each data element in the Directory Information listings can be found on pages 3 through 6 of this Report. Where an item is left blank, this means that the agency did not provide information on item.

Each Directory Information page lists six (6) primary services provided by many of the agencies surveyed. These services are lested regardless whether the particular agency provides these services, which include: Counseling, IDiagnosis, Education Therapy/Classes, Adapted P.E., Language & Speech, and Occupation Therapy or Physical Therapy (O.T. or P.T.). In cases where agencies which provide services other than these six (e.g. Audiology), the additional service(s) are also listed.
